

Oral Health in Older Adults

A new Knowledge Hub for healthcare professionals

This educational resource is designed to provide healthcare professionals with practical education and tools, in order to understand and appreciate the importance of oral health in older adults and to assist in the diagnosis, treatment and effective management of oral health in older adults.

VIEW NOW

Free educational resources available:

- Curated research article collections
- Infographics
- Video summaries from leading experts
- E-learning

This resource has been created in coordination with the European College of Gerodontology (ECG) and utilizes the editorial expertise of independently selected specialists to curate all content.

This Knowledge Hub is supported by Oral B.
In partnership with:

European College of Gerodontology

WILEY