

PROGRAMMING CA21122 in collaboration with FFN organizes the webinar

Orthogeriatrics – a model of care towards improving outcomes in older patients with hip fracture and promoting Geriatric Medicine training

Joint session between PROGRAMMING COST Action 21122 and FFN

OCT 24 at 18:00-19.30 CET

 Meeting Link

CHAIR
Steano Eleuteri

Sapienza University of Rome, Edu Com Chair, FFN, Italy

CHAIR
Anette Hylén Ranhoff

University of Bergen, Diakonhjemmet Hospital, FFN, Norway

CHAIR
Mohamed Salem

Active Ageing Unit, Qormi, Malta

Can medication review help us preventing osteoporotic fractures and how?

Speaker: Gülistan Bahat

Istanbul University, Istanbul Medical Faculty, Department of Internal Medicine, Division of Geriatrics, Istanbul, Turkey

Orthogeriatric co-management for older patients with fragility fractures – from the basics to the best model of care

Speaker: Carmelinda Ruggiero

Dept. Medicine and Surgery, University of Perugia, Italy

Orthogeriatrics and the opportunity for PROMoting GeRIatric Medicine in countries where it is still eMerging

Speaker: Sofia Duque

Internist, Geriatrician – Hospital Cuf Descobertas; Invited Lecturer of Geriatrics – Faculty of Medicine, University of Lisbon, Portugal

Common ground and joint forces between the FFN and PROGRAMMING CA for the training in GM across Europe

Speaker: Marina Kotsani

Long term care coordinator physician, PROGRAMMING CA Chair, Greece